Connect with Country

Heighten your senses and open your heart to Country. Come and see, smell, taste, touch and hear the music of Country. Learn about our lore, traditional foods, fibres and our special use plants and animals.

Connect with Story

Glimpse the traditional lifestyle of our Ancestors. Learn about the rhythms, rituals and relationships between people and place. Come to know our cultural values and the great leaders who continue to guide us such as Wonga and Barak.

Experience Tanderrum

Participate in the ancient tradition of Tanderrum – a ceremony to welcome guests to Country. By walking through sacred smoke and accepting our hospitality, you agree to care for Country, respect the land, the lore, and us, the children of Bunjil, during your stay.

ABOUT WURUNDJERI

We, the Wurundjeri people (Woi-wurrung language group), are the Traditional Custodians of Melbourne and surrounding lands. We have cared for Country since Bunjil, the great Eagle and Balliyang the Bat, created our land and people.

We proudly continue to care for our Country, practice our culture, and welcome all people visiting our lands.
